LANGUAGE ARTS
Grade 4- - December

Yes	Not Yet	Indicator #	State Standard
		RP – 7	I can use words, text organization and plot to tell what will happen in a selection.
		RP – 7	I can determine the theme of a selection.
		RP – 7	I can set a purpose for reading.
		RP – 7	I can demonstrate a knowledge of what information is important in a text and electronic and visual media.
		RP – 7	I can draw conclusions, make inferences, and use details to support conclusions and inferences (to sum up information presented in a story).
		RP – 3	I can compare and contrast information on a single topic or theme across different text and non-text sources.
		WA – 3	I can write a letter that follow letter format (date, salutation, body, closing, and signature) include important information and closing.
		WP – 12	I can arrange words, sentences, and paragraphs to clarify meaning.
		WP – 14	I can proofread my writing for grammar, spelling, punctuation, capitalization, fragments and run-on sentences.
		V – 1	I can tell the meaning of words using context clues (including word, sentence and paragraph clues.)
		VS	I can identify meaning of abbreviations.
		RAI – 6	I can clarify steps in a set of instructions for completeness.