The focus of this Book Challenge should be showing us what you have learned while independently reading your required summer reading novel. Each letter should focus on the 5 elements of fiction: plot, characters, setting, conflict, theme. You need to include at least two of each of these elements in your written paper to receive all points. For some of the more difficult letters of the alphabet you will need to get creative. You can use quotes from the book as well. You will end with a final rating of the book 1-10, 10 being the best book you have ever read, and a paragraph (at least 5 sentences) explaining why you gave it this rating. Each line should be a complete sentence! Use specific details from the novel or this challenge will NOT count. Example: Katniss Everdeen volunteers to be tribute for her sister Prim.
